Marrickville Legal Centre

Marrickville Legal Centre is a non-profit community organisation. We provide free legal advice and assistance, community legal education and we advocate for a better legal system for disadvantaged people.

The Centre provides advice and minor assistance in a wide variety of legal problems including victim's compensation, complaints about police or government, discrimination, debt, consumer complaints, family law, motor vehicle accidents and employment.

Advice Sessions

Appointments for legal advice are available on Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 6.30pm.

To book an appointment, phone the Centre on 9559 2899.

Remember to bring any letters or documents relevant to your problem to your appointment.

Interpreters

Free interpreters are available for people attending the centre for advice. You can also call us through the Telephone Interpreter Service on 13 14 50.

Community Legal Education

The centre runs legal education workshops and writes plain language publications about the law.

Law Reform

The Centre is committed to improving access to justice and a better legal system.
